

HELLO + WELCOME

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your acceptance, and welcome to General Assembly! You should have already received an official acceptance email, but there are a few more steps to take to solidify your enrollment and reserve your seat in the class.

As you may have heard, GA is a licensed school in the state of California. California law requires us to share some documents with you as a part of the admissions process. We have enclosed them here for your review/signature, and described them in more detail below.

These documents are intended to provide you with important information about enrolling in a GA program, which is an investment that we take very seriously. We're generally not a fan of legalese but these forms are required to contain specific language. Where possible, we've tried our best to make them clear and easy to understand.

NEXT STEPS

REVIEW THE GA CATALOG

You should have received a link to a copy of GA's Catalog in your acceptance email. You can also view the relevant Catalog here: <https://generalassemb.ly/regulatory-information>. The Catalog is a comprehensive repository of GA policies and course information. We encourage you to read this carefully before you sign the Enrollment Agreement.

REVIEW AND SIGN THE ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

Review and sign the Enrollment Agreement. This document is a contract between you and GA. It includes important information about your course, including all applicable fees, and our policies for refunds, cancellation, and withdrawal.

REVIEW AND SIGN THE STUDENT DISCLOSURE

Review and sign the School Performance Fact Sheet. This document is intended to give you data on student outcomes, including course completion and job placement rates, where applicable. If you'd like more current data on this program, we're happy to discuss it with you.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to your Admissions Producer if you have any questions about the above.

We hope to see you in class soon!

Cheers,

The GA Admissions Team

ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

D. REFUND POLICY

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. General Assembly reserves the right to cancel or reschedule a course prior to the course start date as conditions demand. If General Assembly cancels a course, the student will be refunded any money he/she paid, including application fees and course materials.
2. You have the right to cancel your course of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session (the Course Start Date in section A of this agreement) or the seventh calendar day after enrollment (the execution date of this agreement in section B), whichever is later. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in your course through the last day of attendance.
3. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation at the address of attendance stated on the enrollment agreement. This can be done by email or by hand delivery.
4. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage.
5. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
6. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled the school will refund the student any money he/she paid, less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $100.00 within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COURSE

You may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period (described above) and receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in your course through the last day of attendance. The refund will be less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $100.00 within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a course of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- » The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.
- » The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- » The student has failed to attend class for 4 class meetings.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. The amount owed equals the daily charge for the course (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of days in the course), multiplied by the number of days scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if applicable, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

General Assembly does not participate in federal or state financial aid programs. However, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending General Assembly to determine if your certificate will transfer.

FINANCING

The Student understands that if a separate party is financing his/her education, that the Student, and the Student alone, is directly responsible for all payments and monies owed to the school listed on this agreement.

LOAN

If a student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or the Division within 30-days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30-days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

Be sure to read all pages of this agreement—it is part of your contract with the school.

ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

F. DISTANCE EDUCATION DISCLOSURES

For online courses, General Assembly will transmit all lessons and materials to students on the first day of class. General Assembly will ensure that students who have fully paid for the program receive all lessons and materials. Students have the right to request all lessons and materials after the first class. Because students receive all lessons and materials on the first day of an online class, they have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and receive a full refund before the first class. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. After the cancellation period, refunds will be provided in accordance with the refund policy stated above. Course materials must be returned upon cancellation of the course and refunds may be delayed for up to 45 days after the student's return of the materials.
